

Job Posting for Product Engineer

Azure Dynamics is a world leader in the design and manufacture of Commercial Electric and Hybrid Electric Vehicle systems and is looking for an experienced Product Engineer.

Responsibilities:

- Lead new product launches, including on site support and issue management for pre-production and production builds
- Facilitate meetings with various Engineering departments & other departments
- Lead some development activities for new product development
- Create & manage Bill of Material for new product using ERP system
- Track & maintain field failure & corrective action projects
- Champion ECR's & deviations
- Develop & manage project plans / budgets
- Manage multiple concurrent projects & priorities
- Facilitate cross functional problem solving with project team
- Assist with service literature creation

Requirements:

- Engineering Degree (Mech, Elect or Systems)
- 5+ years professional experience in an Engineering environment
- Must be knowledgeable on vehicle powertrain, drivetrain and control systems
- Must be a hands on person who can build and service vehicles when required
- Available to travel up to 25% of the time
- Experience in Automotive projects would be an asset
- Demonstrated Leadership and Communication skills

If you would like to apply for this position, please forward your cover letter and resume to the following:

c/o Kristen Sanders
Azure Dynamics
3900 North Fraser Way
Burnaby, BC
V5J 5H6

Or email ksanders@azuredynamics.com